DFA HEARING DATES ANNOUNCED

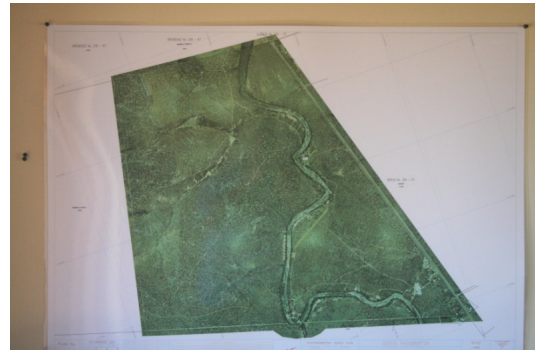

In our latest newsletter we explained that getting dates from the Designated Officer of the DFA (Development Facilitation Act) Tribunal has been a very difficult process.

Province Tribunal, we finally received the dates we have been waiting for on the 12th of June. The pre-hearing conference will be on the 14th of August and the tribunal hearing will be on the 11th of September 2008.

We have been trying to obtain the pre-hearing as well as the final tribunal hearing dates since the hand in of our documents on the 14th of December 2007. Although the law, prescribes that the tribunal hearing is to be held no later than 120 days after submission of all documents, the Designated Officer was not able to give us these dates due to enormous backlogs. We were informed that the tribunal hearing would most likely only be in the first half of 2009. This we found totally unacceptable.

This is great news after more than two years of hard work. This effectively means that we will be able to launch our development and start with the infrastructure very soon after the 11th of September.
